Junior Achievement has brought business and education together to make school curricula pertinent to every day life. Lincoln Industries is a proud partner in these ventures. We look forward to a continued partnership providing positive, educational programs to students in the years to come.

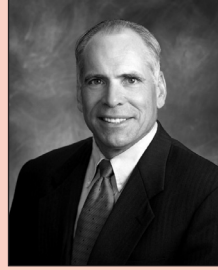

- Marc E. LeBaron,
Chairman and CEO,
Lincoln Industries

Junior Achievement Is...

...the world's oldest partnership between business and education. Our mission is to empower young people to own their economic success by providing practical, engaging and informative activities that educate students about financial literacy, work readiness and entrepreneurship. JA provides current, state-of-the-art educational materials, computer software, and trained volunteers at no cost to the schools or students while preparing students for key economic and workplace issues they will face in the future.

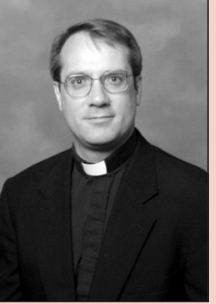

Junior Achievement, a 501(c)(3) non-profit educational corporation, is entirely supported by private sector contributions and governed by voluntary boards of directors and trustees. To learn more about JA or to volunteer, please call:

Phone: 402.467.1010
www.jalincoln.org
285 South 68th Place, Suite 580
Lincoln, Nebraska 68510

As a Junior Achievement classroom volunteer for many years, I can testify to the power of the program. First, the program represents genuine learning for children and often motivates them to think about careers they may have never heard of. Second, J.A. brings successful adults into our schools who support education and quickly develop positive relationships with kids. Finally, J.A. represents a vibrant partnership among the Lincoln community and our schools. We are excited and proud to be associated with a program that does make a difference.

- Steve Joel, Ed.D.,
Superintendent,
Lincoln Public Schools

Lincoln's Catholic Schools appreciate their partnership with JAVolunteers. Their classroom presence enriches our economic education curriculum in ways that would be difficult to replace without this significant business/community resource.

- Rev. Msgr. John Perkinson,
Superintendent,
Lincoln Catholic Schools
